CONTENTS

Volume 39 • N° 3 • May/June 2007

- Managing the risk of comparing estimated breeding values across flocks or herds through connectedness: a review and application (Open Access publication)
L.A. KUEHN, R.M. LEWIS, D.R. NOTTER 225
- A periodic analysis of longitudinal binary responses: a case study of clinical mastitis in Norwegian Red cows
Y.-M. CHANG, D. GIANOLA, B. HERINGSTAD, G. KLEMETSDAL 249
- Empirical evaluation of selective DNA pooling to map QTL in dairy cattle using a half-sib design by comparison to individual genotyping and interval mapping
M. MARIASEGARAM, N.A. ROBINSON, M.E. GODDARD 267
- Fine mapping of multiple QTL using combined linkage and linkage disequilibrium mapping – A comparison of single QTL and multi QTL methods
E. ULEBERG, T.H.E. MEUWISSEN 285
- Within-family marker-assisted selection for aquaculture species
A.K. SONESSON 301
- Genetic diversity and population structure inferred from the partially duplicated genome of domesticated carp, Cyprinus carpio L.
L. DAVID, N.A. ROSENBERG, U. LAVI, M.W. FELDMAN, J. HILLEL 319
- Extensive intragenic recombination and patterns of linkage disequilibrium at the CSN3 locus in European rabbit
M. CARNEIRO, N. FERRAND 341
