

CHEMISTRY & INDUSTRY

NUMBER 23, PAGES 749-780

3 DECEMBER 2001

Alternative fuels have hydrocarbons

CHEMISTRY & INDUSTRY

NUMBER 23, PAGES 749-780

3 DECEMBER 2001

Pharmaceutical companies must be crystal clear regarding vitamins, p753

750 LETTERS

751 NEWS

- ◆ Eastman 'poised' for better days
- ◆ PowderJect into profit
- ◆ Massive European fines for vitamin cartel
- ◆ Watching electrons change partners

756 BUSINESS

Spelling out Bayer's string of 'bad luck'

As Bayer's third-quarter results attract bad press, Dede Williams looks back on a less than great year for Bayer.

758 AFTERWORDS

760 PATENTS

762 ENVIRONMENT

A daunting challenge

Meeting human needs while managing carbon emissions. Donald L. Guertin explores the challenges the world is faced with.

765 ENERGY

Knowledge not petroleum

Oil and gas are still dominating the global energy market, nevertheless, key challenges lie ahead for the traditional energy industry. Claire Curran reports from a speech by Byron Grote.

767 RENEWABLES

Fuel cells — alternative energy?

Fuel cells have many advantages over traditional energy resources, however, R&D needs to concentrate on lowering costs and increasing power density. Claire Curran reports.

Cloning cattle is not so easy, p751

