

UNDERSTANDING ARCHITECTURE THROUGH DRAWING

BRIAN
EDWARDS

E & FN SPON
An Imprint of Chapman & Hall

Contents

Chapter 1 Introduction

Part One

Guiding Principles

Chapter 2 Why draw?

Chapter 3 Choosing the subject

Part Two

Techniques

Chapter 4 Perspective

Chapter 5 Line and shade

Chapter 6 Composition

Chapter 7 The importance of practice

Chapter 8 From the sketch to plan making and documentary investigation

Chapter 9 Sequential sketches

Part Three

Case Studies in Drawing

Chapter 10 Towns, townscapes and squares

Chapter 11 Streets, lanes and footpaths

1 Chapter 12 Landmarks, skyline and city image 88

Chapter 13 Gateways, entrances and doorways 93

Chapter 14 The façades of buildings 100

12 Chapter 15 Machinery and the functional tradition 111

Chapter 16 Landscape 118

Chapter 17 Interiors 126

Chapter 18 Colour 133

Chapter 19 Using drawing to analyse an urban area 138

Case Study 1 The Merchant City 138

44 Case Study 2 The Bastide towns, France 147

Part Four

The Way Forward

Chapter 20 Exploration through the sketchbook – some suitable subjects 154

Chapter 21 From sketch to design 170

72 Further reading 182

81 Index 183