Health

8 Chop pills and slash prices. Should health providers look to pill splitting to save money? This appears to be paying off in the US, as Richard Butler reports.

2003 outlook

13 Forecasters at Cefic have suggested that the global economy will be nervous for the first two quarters of 2003, then it will pull itself together and motor ahead. Simon Robinson reports.

Cartels

22 Price fixing is under pressure. In mature markets, the temptation to fix prices between suppliers can be overwhelming. Guy Lougher, a partner with Wragge & Co solicitors, explains why this could be a costly temptation.
