Construction engineering

ARTICLES

Seungwoo Han, Sangyoub Lee, 1105-1114
Taehoon Hong, and Hoon Chang

Rong-yau Huang and Kuo-Shun Sun 1172-1194

Hydrotechnical engineering

ARTICLES

Katy Haralampides and Andres Rodriguez 1209-1216

C. Mahabir, F.E. Hicks, C. Robichaud, and 1227-1238
A. Robinson Fayek

Structural engineering

ARTICLES

Yanglin Gong 1125-1139

Abass Braimah, Mark F. Green, and 1140-1155
T. Ivan Campbell

H.P. Hong, K. Goda, and A.G. Davenport 1156-1171

K.S. Sivakumaran, Ming Yin Ng, and 1196-1208
Steven R. Fox

Transportation engineering

ARTICLES

Ziad Sawalha and Tarek Sayed 1115-1124

Ingénierie de la construction

ARTICLES

Simulation analysis of productivity variation by global positioning system (GPS) implementation in earthmoving operations

An optimization model for workgroup-based repetitive scheduling

Hydraulique

ARTICLES

Erosional properties of the sediments in the Petitcodiac
River estuary at Moncton, New Brunswick

Forecasting breakup water levels at Fort McMurray,
Alberta, using multiple linear regression

Ingénierie des structures

ARTICLES

Adaptive gradual plastic hinge model for nonlinear analysis of steel frameworks

Fatigue behaviour of concrete beams post-tensioned with unbonded carbon fibre reinforced polymer tendons

Seismic hazard analysis: a comparative study

Flexural strength of cold-formed steel joists with reinforced web openings

Ingénierie des transports

ARTICLES

Traffic accident modeling: some statistical issues

Front cover: Diagonally divided concrete cubes placed as an erosion protection at diversion tunnel No. 1 of the Seymarch Dam in Iran (see Emami and Schleiss in the January 2006 issue, pp. 81-92).

Page couverture : Cubes de béton séparés en diagonale et utilisés comme mesure de protection contre l'érosion à la sortie de la galerie de dérivation n° 1 du barrage de Seymarch en Iran (voir Emami et Schleiss, numéro de janvier 2006, p. 81-92).
